

	Queen's University

September 27, 2023

Original

The purpose of this Standard Operating procedures surrounding conflict of in

It is the responsibility of that the use of animals within the institution and by its society within which that institution exists. Therefore, e on the UACC and to avoid conflicts of interest to keep o each category of member on the UACC.

Conflict of interest is defined as a situation in which a p multiple interests (financial, emotional, or otherwise), o motivation of the individual or organization.

University Animal Care Committee
Protocol

If at any point during the protocol review process a con reviewer is asked to declare the conflict to the UACC Co removed from the assignment (reviewers who do not fo any reason will be accommodated). If a conflict of inter meeting, affected individuals are asked to declare the c asked to temporarily leave the discussion. The UACC st decisions are reached by consensus.

Date	New Version
Sept 2023	SOP Created & Approved