

UNIVERSITY ANIMAL CARE COMMITTEE

Policy on Animal Welfare Assessment

All animals that are used in Science at Queen's University must undergo a Welfare Assessment on a regular basis. As a guiding principle, all animals that participate in science should be healthy and express a high prevalence and diversity of positively motivated species-