

The Government of Canada's have shown fairly convincingly that the federal

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

The second interpretation – the equality of the provinces with each other – is expressed in two statements of the Calgary Declaration, a document cobbled together by the provincial

With respect to the view of the Fathers of Confederation, it appears that there were varying degrees of agreement among the founders for the

At various points in the process of negotiating the constitutional amendment of 1982, the Trudeau

Asymmetry is espoused not only by many Quebecois writers. Aboriginal groups too have copied with the problem of re-establishment” (Struthers, 198). In other words, UI would be necessary for the reconstruction of the wartime

and we recommend that the Dominion should have the necessary powers to do this (Ibid 40)

Federal government which must continue to allow provincial government to do as it sees fit

[Redacted]

[Redacted]

[Redacted]

[Redacted]

[Redacted]

[Redacted]

[Redacted]

[Redacted]

[Redacted]

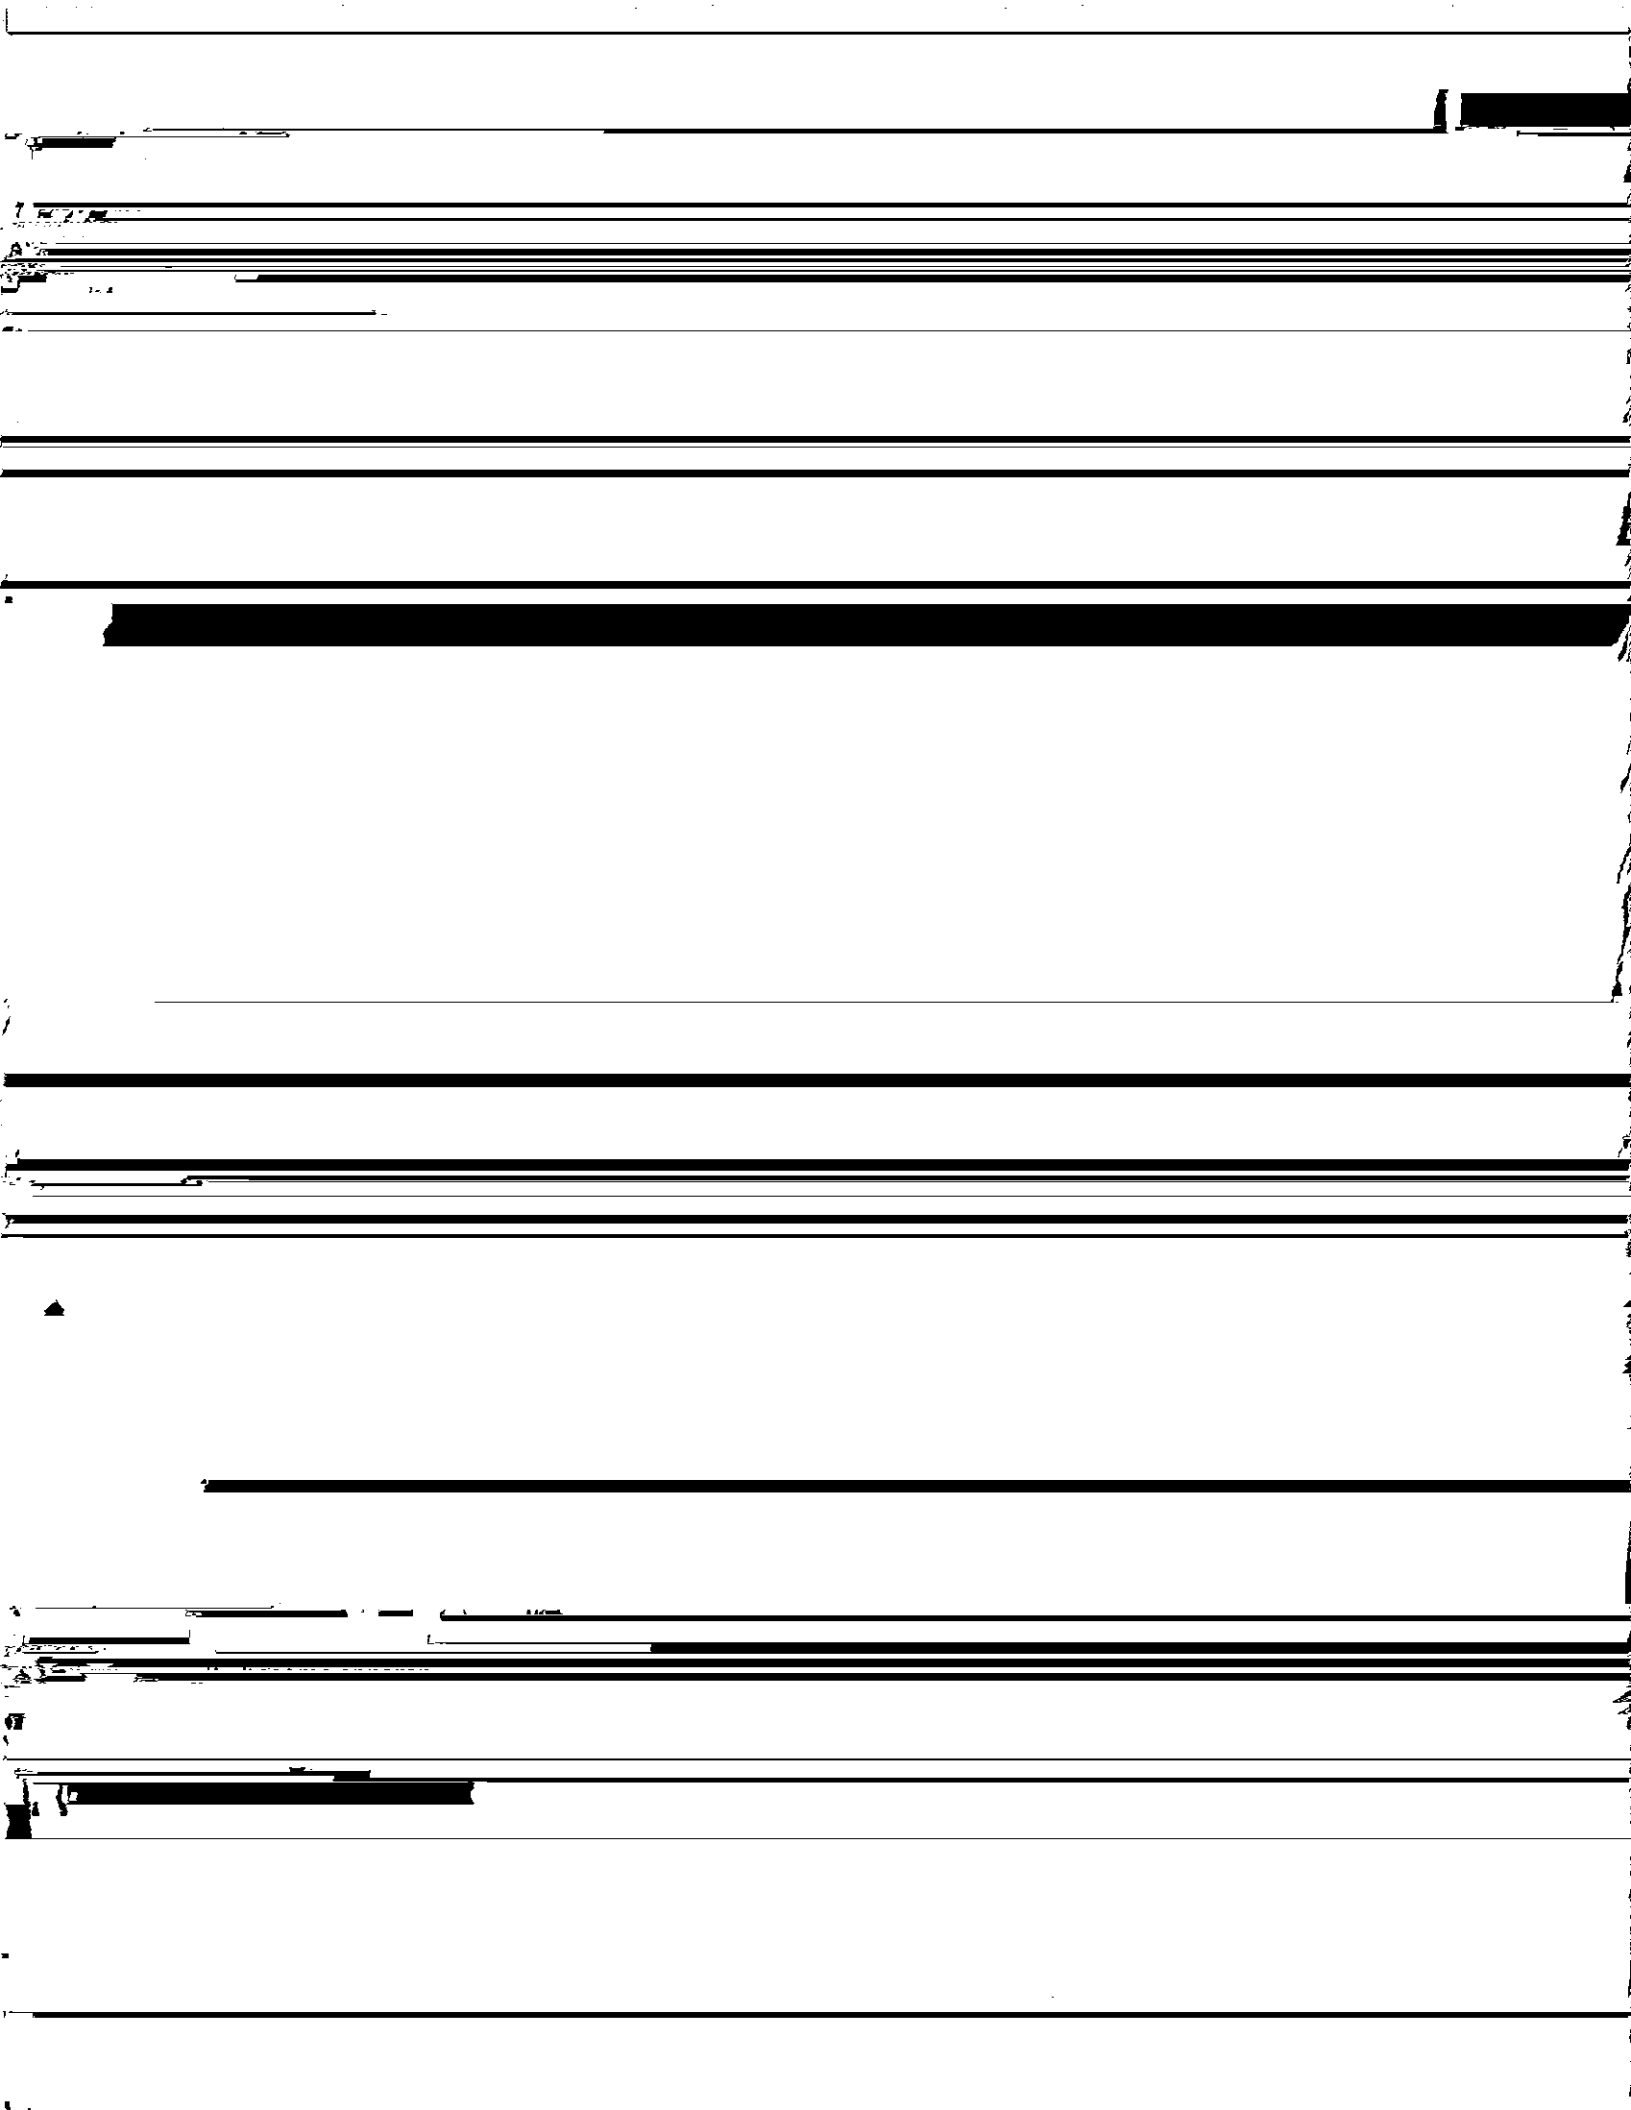

[Redacted]

[Redacted]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

1 /

2

[REDACTED]

3

4

5

6

UI, the Government of Canada inserted into the 1971 amendments a clause requiring the federal government to cease delivering benefits to, and taking contributions from, the citizens of any province that established its own maternity leave ...

particularly labour force training policy and environmental policy. Since the early 1900s, the Government of Canada has asserted its right to be involved in occupational training policy and has transferred funds to the provinces for that

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

