Analysis and Conclusions from Presentations

Chair:

1:15-3:15 p.m. Presentation of an overview of federalism and multi-level governance and challenges to IHR
Harvey Lazar

Followed by short presentations (10-12 minutes) from academic/research participants, based on the country presentations, in select topic areas. The focus will be on areas where progress in IHR governance preparation has been greatest and areas where progress has been slow. These presentations are to be followed by feedback from workshop participants.

3:15-3:30 p.m. REFRESHMENTS BREAK

3:30-4:00 p.m. Discussion of key lessons emerging from workshop.

What intergovernmental strategies work best in implementing IHR? For example, what strategies among orders of government best ensure certainty in clarifying “who does what” and in clarifying “who pays for what”? Are there trade-offs between policy efficiency and other goals like democracy (transparency, accountability etc.) and federalism (respect for constitutional provisions)?

4:00-4:30 p.m. Follow-up to workshop: communications strategies and other deliverables/actions

4:30-4:45 p.m. Closing remarks
Dr. K. Wilson & Dr. Ron St. John
