

Personal information on this form is collected under the authority of the Queen's Royal Charter and will be used to determine the qualification of the individual identified on this form for medical accommodation in relation to the requirements that those
a

Personal information on this form is collected under the authority of the Queen's Royal Charter and will be used to determine the qualification of the individual identified on this form for medical accommodation in relation to the requirements that those attending on university property, use university facilities, or attending university events in person be vaccinated against COVID-19. The information provided will be stored securely and the need for accommodation will be shared within the university, on a strictly need