

University Secretary Lon Knox. The four winners will be honoured at the Alumni Gala in Kingston on June 17th and for those that are graduating, at Convocation in May and June.

The bursary that is administered in partnership with the Student Awards office was accessed twice this year to help alleviate emergency financial need. In the coming year, I will continue to ensure the bursary is well communicated to students and serve those most in need.