

TEACHING POSITIONS AVAILABLE Fall 2021
RELS 212 Mythology of the Ancient Near East
School of Religion and Jewish Studies

The School of Religion in conjunction with Jewish Studies at Queen's University invites applications from suitably qualified candidates interested in teaching an undergraduate course in Mythology of the Ancient Near East (RELS 212). This is a remote, upper level lecture course with an expected enrolment of ~95 students.

Candidates should have a Ph.D, and teaching experience at the University level in Religious Studies. This is a Fall term appointment for the period September 1 to December 31, 2021 with classes in session from September 7, 2021 to December 3, 2021.

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Queen's is strongly committed to employment equity, diversity, and inclusion in the workplace and encourages applications from Black, racialized/visible minority and Indigenous/Aboriginal people, women, persons with disabilities, and 2SLGBTQ+ persons. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.

The University will provide support in its recruitment processes to applicants with disabilities, including accommodation that takes into account an applicant's accessibility needs. If you require accommodation during this process, please contact: Levanna Schonwandt, in The School of Religion, at school.of.religion@queensu.ca

The academic staff at Queen's University are governed by the Collective Agreement between the Queen's University Faculty Association (QUFA) and the University, which is posted at <http://www.queensu.ca/facultyrelations/faculty-librarians-and-archivists/queens-qufa-collective-agreement>.

To comply with Federal laws, the University is obliged to gather statistical information about how many applicants for each job vacancy are Canadian citizens / permanent residents of Canada. Applicants need not identify their country of origin or citizenship, however, all applications must include one of the following statements: "I am a Canadian citizen / permanent resident of Canada"; OR, "I am not a Canadian citizen / permanent resident of Canada". Applications that do not include this information will be deemed incomplete.

Applications should include a complete and current curriculum vitae, letters of reference from two (2) referees, and any other relevant materials the candidate wishes to submit for consideration such as a letter of intent, teaching dossier, etc. Please arrange to have applications and supporting letters sent directly to:
