

TEACHING FELLOW POSITION AVAILABLE –Winter 2023
RELS 218 Christianity
School of Religion

The School of Religion at Queen's University invites applications from suitably qualified graduate students at Queen's University interested in teaching a course in Christianity (RELS 218) as a Teaching Fellow. This is an on-campus lecture course with an expected enrolment of ~50 undergraduate students. This is a Winter term appointment for the period January 1 to April 30, 2023 with classes in session from January 9, 2023 to April 10, 2023.

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Queen's University is committed to employment equity and diversity in the workplace and welcomes applications from women, visible minorities, aboriginal people, persons with disabilities, and persons of any sexual orientation or gender identity. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.

The University has policies in place to support its employees with disabilities, including an Accommodation in the Workplace Policy and a policy on the provision of job accommodations that take into account an employee's accessibility needs due to disability. The University will provide support in its recruitment processes to applicants with disabilities, including accommodation that takes into account an applicant's accessibility needs. If you require accommodation during this process, please contact Levanna Schonwandt, School of Religion, school.of.religion@queensu.ca .
