

As stated in the Residence Life department's philosophy and goals, Queen's Residence Life & Services department holds a responsibility to the safety and security of everyone located within its Residence communities. To ensure this responsibility is upheld the following guidelines must be followed by groups wishing to advertise within the residence community:

set up booths must do so on both Main campus locations, and on West Campus (Jean Royce Hall). Booths in both locations do not have to occur on the same day but should happen within the same week. Boothing is proh
