

queensu.ca/secretariat/university-council

May 3, 2021

We, the Black members of the University Council of Queen's University at Kingston, come together with the full support of our colleagues on Council to speak with one voice on the issue of racism, violence and racial hatred directed at the Asian communities of North America.

As members of a group that has been the target of similar treatment both historically and in